

Eligibility to apply for funding in the first round of the new grant program based on the grant portfolio held on 1 January 2020

This table details a researcher's eligibility for funding in the first round of the new grant program. The first round of the new grant program will open for applications in late 2018 – early 2019, for peer review during 2019 and funding in 2020, identified as the '2019 grant round' in the table. To determine your eligibility, identify the green box that represents your NHMRC grant portfolio as it will be on 1 January 2020. Then progress down the column to identify the grants you will be eligible for. Please pay attention to both the conjunctions between the boxes that detail eligibility and the specific conditions of eligibility stated in the boxes and the footnotes. RSP = Research Support Package, CI = Chief Investigator. Blue box = eligible, red box = not eligible. These rules do not affect eligibility for Strategic and Leveraging Grants.

^b Researchers may apply for a maximum of two grants in a given round, depending on individual eligibility.

^c Any RSP reduction applied to an Investigator Grant will be removed when the grant/s determining the reduction expire.

^d If the first year of the Investigator Grant overlaps with the final year of a NHMRC fellowship, the salary component of the Investigator Grant will not be paid during the overlap (i.e. the period that both grants are held). During this overlap, the Investigator Grant will run concurrently with the NHMRC fellowship and the salary component of the Investigator Grant will be reduced accordingly. Case study 1

Dr A will hold no NHMRC grants on 1 January 2020. Her grant portfolio is represented by Column A. Reading this column down, she is eligible to apply for:

- One Investigator Grant, OR
- One Investigator Grant and one Ideas Grant (noting that, should both the Investigator Grant and the Ideas Grant be successful, only the Investigator Grant will be awarded), OR
