

Research & Innovation Expertise Portfolio Awards

Nominations are now open!

Nominate an individual or team at research.uq.edu.au/staffawards

The Research and Innovation Expertise Portfolio Staff Awards are an opportunity to recognise and reward our people who have made an exceptional contribution to RIE. This may be through exemplar behaviour, providing excellent service, making a difference to our work place, or by using great ideas to effect positive change.

A number of individual and team award categories are open for nomination, with trophies, certificates and gift vouchers for winners.
